

Sinclair Broadcast Group is forcing their local stations to show portions of a John Kerry smear "documentary".

This underlines the menace of corporate control and media consolidation. Sinclair should be serving the public interest; taxpayers are supporting their free access to public airwaves, and we also pay YOUR salaries at the FCC to regulate them.

Please do the right thing! They need a reprimand, a fine and a revoked broadcasting license.